A Kildare Education Ministries School in the Brigidine Tradition

About us

Kilbreda College is a Catholic secondary school for girls in the Brigidine Tradition located in the bayside suburb of Mentone. The College is part of Kildare Ministries which comprises 10 schools and 3 community works.

We pride ourselves on promoting a holistic education for girls through the spiritual, social, academic, physical and cultural dimensions of learning. Through exposure to a rigorous learning environment, an extensive co-curricular program and a deep commitment to social justice, our students are encouraged to become women of hope and compassion, pursue excellence, express their creativity, and embrace opportunities for leadership and service.
